FULL SERVICE DELI

Licavoli's takes pride in using family recipes and techniques, such as my father's Sicilian way of pizza making. Our thin crust pizza dough is made with Caputo "00" flour imported from Italy and then hand tossed.

Pizzas are topped with the highest quality tomatoes in a thin layer to complement the crust. Mozzarella cheese is still hand shredded for full aroma and flavor. Then the pizza is fired off in our wood fired oven giving the light delicate crust a slightly smokey flavor.

We take great pleasure in being able to provide you with a taste of Italy in our family's traditions like for example all our entrees are prepared in house like Mama used to make.

We hope you can find everything you need at Licavoli's Market even if we have to special order it for you. We are focused on providing high quality service and customer satisfaction.

We will do everything we can to meet your expectations.

Buono Appetito!
